WEATHERMAN, formerly a faction of SDS, controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. WEATHERMAN then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with prolice and military installations designated as primary targets.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant WEATHERMAN faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned idelogically with PLP and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

A characterization of the RYM is contained in the appendix attached hereto.

During May, 1972, leaflets were circulated in the Newark area captioned, "Fight the Racist Bombings! U.S. Out of S.E. Asia --- Now!" written by SDS members advocating support for anti-war demonstrations and specifically the demonstration at Fort Dix, New Jersey, May 20, 1972, for [redacted]

APPENDIX

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised the the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space [redacted]

b7D

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

NK 100-47873

During April, 1972, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania SDS chapter members planned to attend demonstration at Convention of American College of Physicians, Convention Hall, Atlantic City, New Jersey, April 17, 1972. Demonstration was to protest Man of the Year award to Dr. SAUL KRUGMAN, Chairman, Pediatrics Department, New York University Medical Center. Decision to protestaward to KRUGMAN made at SDS National Convention, Harvard University, March 30 to April 2, 1972.

NK T-2
April 12, 1972

On April 17, 1972, about 130 demonstrators attended the convention of American College of Physicians, Convention Hall, Atlantic City, New Jersey, co-sponsored by Medical Committee for Human Rights (MCHR), PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP) and SDS in an attempt to disrupt the presentation of a memorial aware to Dr. SAUL KRUGMAN of New York City. The protestors shouted "racist KRUGMAN must go" and denounced his injecting hepatitis into patients at the Willowbrook State School, an institution for the mentally retarded on Staten Island. KRUGMAN was the second doctor to be honored at the ceremony. The remaining awards were given out hurriedly but no one in the audience could hear the presentations. There were no arrests or incidents.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy", SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: WEATHERMAN; WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE (WSA); and REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT (RYM). The WEATHERMAN and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

Among the several speakers was [redacted] of Philadelphia, and she and all the other speakers were critical of the Vietnam war and in favor of International Solidarity.

PH T-3, on April 5, 1972, advised that during the SDS National Convention Against Racism at Harvard University, approximately 70 workshops were held on March 31, 1972, and that [redacted] of Temple SDS and [redacted] of Temple SDS were each in charge of one of these workshops. b6 b7C

PH T-2, on April 12, 1972, advised that the TU SDS/WSA Chapter was then attempting to arrange a demonstration at the Convention of American College of Physicians Convention to be held in Atlantic City, N. J., on April 17, 1972, to protest the American College of Physicians Man of the Year Award to Dr. SAUL KRUGMAN, Chairman of Pediatrics in New York University Medical Center, New York, N. Y. Informant advised that the proposed protest against Dr. KRUGMAN was one of the resolutions adopted at the SDS National Convention March 30 to April 2, 1972, and the basis of the protest was that KRUGMAN in his capacity of Chairman of Pediatrics at New York University Medical Center was responsible for having infected with hepititis several hundred children at the Willowbrook State School for the Mentally Retarded, Staton Island, New York, N.Y. The SDS claimed that KRUGMAN's experiments which caused infectious hepititis showed his contempt for black, latin and white working class people.

N.J.

On April 21, 1972, PH T-2 advised that [redacted] a member of the TU SDS/WSA Chapter had complained on that day that the proposed demonstration against Dr. SAUL KRUGMAN at Atlantic City Convention Hall had been a failure. b6 b7C

Title: STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

Synopsis:

SDS still lacks office space in NYC, resulting in lack of contact with membership and individuals interested in participating in demonstrations. Issues an occasional leaflet to announce activity with the first name and telephone number of persons to be contacted, who invariably are not available or have limited knowledge of the event for which the leaflet was issued. Lacks funds and leadership. Racism now SDS theme. Regional Conference on Racism co-sponsored with University Action Group, held 2/20/72, as first event of 1971 - 1972, as part of PLP attempt to revive SDS and promote its new satellite, UAG. [redacted] PLP National Student Organizer, and other PLP members active in SDS. Group departed NYC by buses for SDS National Convention Against Racism at Harvard University, 3/30-4/2/72, assisted by [redacted] PLP Chairman, and other PLP members. CCNY Chapter President [redacted] arrested 3/21/72, for returning to campus after suspension, as result of disruption of JDL meeting on 2/28/72. [redacted] National Secretary, SDS, spoke at Columbia University rally on 4/23/72, during recent campus disruptions there over renewed United States bombing of North Vietnam. Leaflets appeared in name of Columbia SDS, where no chapter has existed this year. Inactive chapter continues at State University of New York at Stony Brook. Activities reported.

DETAILS:

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy," the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese Communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

I. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

In an article entitled "SDS in Milder Mood at Convention Against Racism", it was stated in part that "Three years after it led student rebellions that convulsed scores of American universities, SDS is still very much alive but not so well as it once was."

While exact membership figures are hard to come by, SDS is still strong enough to have attracted more than 1,000 young people to Cambridge this weekend March 30 to April 2, 1972, for a "national convention against racism".

SDS has changed a great deal having fallen under the hegemony of the PLP, a doctrinaire, tightly disciplined faction that has sought to forge a political alliance between "oppressed" working people and students. Three years ago, SDS focused more directly on the college campuses.

In four days of meetings here this weekend the air rang with strident exhortations to "smash racism" and "fight for socialism".

SDS has had no Regional Office since July, 1971. Since then contacts are made with SDS through an occasional leaflet distributed regarding a demonstration or meeting.

These leaflets contain the telephone numbers and first names only of persons to be contacted. This system is not very efficient since the person to be contacted is invariably not at home or has limited knowledge of the event for which the leaflet was issued.

B. Leadership

New York Regional SDS does not seem to have any particular individual available to take over or to give any impetus to the remaining organization. It has no such thing as a staff or committee to direct it. New York SDS completely lacks leadership and now appears to be under the direction of but a few individuals willing to lend their names to it.

C. Inactivity and Efforts to Rebuild SDS

A Regional Conference on Racism, co-sponsored by SDS and the University Action Group (UAG), was held on February 20, 1972 at Columbia University (CU), New York City (NYC). This conference was the first to be held in the 1971-1972 academic year as part of the PLP attempt to

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NCLC is composed of the various Labor Committees throughout the country one of which is the New York Labor Committee.

The Labor Committee, which later changed its name to the New York Labor Committee, was expelled from the SDS in 1962, because it supported the Teachers Union during the New York teachers strike in 1968. The Labor Committee seeks to identify itself with the American worker and holds to the belief that the American worker - in the future - will emerge as a separate and distinct social class which will become oriented towards a socialist America.

V. DEMONSTRATIONS CO-SPONSORED WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

Demonstration
March 9, 1972

The Medical Committee For Human Rights (MCHR) announced a demonstration at Bellevue Hospital, 27th Street and First Avenue, NYC, on March 9, 1972, 4 to 6 PM, to demand the censure of Doctor SAUL KRUGMAN, Chairman of Pediatrics at New York University Medical Center, for conducting a Hepatitis research experiment at Willowbrook State School For Mentally Retarded.

The demonstration was being supported by the SDS and the UAG.

The "New York Post" on September 30, 1968 contained an article captioned "Medic Group Condemns the HUAC." The article states that the leaders of the MCHR had drafted a statement condemning the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC). It describes the MCHR as having been founded originally to give medical aid to civil rights marchers who were subject to violence. It has since become involved in urban health problems in the north and has been known to take political stands on numerous issues, including opposition to the Vietnam War. However, the organization maintains a policy of "medical neutrality" when rendering aid during incidents of violence.

To help build this campaign, UAG is co-sponsoring the SDS National Convention Against Racism at Harvard, from March 30 to April 2. Along with students, professionals and workers from Europe, Japan, Canada, Puerto Rico, and all over the U.S., we will discuss in workshops our own experiences in fighting racism and other forms of oppression, and plan how to improve and expand the fight in the future. All are invited to come--and to help plan the convention".

VI. NEW YORK REGIONAL CHAPTERS

CCNY
139th and Convent Avenue, NYC

In an article entitled "CCNY: A Day at the Zoo" it was stated in part that "CCNY has for years been a center of activity for the New Left. Unlike many campuses which have been quiet since the Kent State and Cambodia Invasion, each spring term CCNY goes through the traditional cycle of student unrest. At the present time the New Left is represented by SDS, PLP, Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and the Workers League (WL) and others.

The first battle of the Spring '72 term took place on February 28th, 1972, in the Grand Ballroom of the Finley Student Center. An audience assembled to hear Rabbi MEIR KAHANE give a speech sponsored by the CCNY Chapter of the Jewish Defense League (JDL). For the week prior to his appearance JDL had been publicizing it with an interesting hand bill which was construed to be inflamatory to all types of groups, simultaneously. The advance publicity allowed four of the Left-wing groups to organize a demonstration against KAHANE.

KAHANE spoke of the goals of his group. After the speech there was a Question and Answer period where any questions about JDL were entertained by it's founder Rabbi MEIR KAHANE. Throughout the entire presentation, the New Left were shouting such things as "JDL Go To Hell," "Stop KAHANE", et cetera from the rear of the ballroom and from outside the entrance. Besides the slogans they were also holdings signs like "Free the Jewish Workers".

Upon completion of the Question and Answer period, JDL members flanked Rabbi KAHANE to protect him from the crowd, while moving him toward the door. At this very moment, the remaining "protestors", wielding clubs, lead pipes and Mace, attacked (charged at) KAHANE.

As a result of this fracas the charters of all involved groups were suspended until Disciplinary Hearings could be held.

As the youth organization of the SWP, the YSA serves as the main source of recruitment into that organization. The YSA is described in the masthead of its official publication, "The Young Socialist Organizer", "A multinational revolutionary socialist youth organization".

The WL was founded in 1964, by individuals expelled from the SWP. Originally called the American Committee For The Fourth International, in November, 1966, it was changed to WL. Its objective is the establishment of an American labor party based on Marxist-Leninist doctrine and the teachings of LEON TROTSKY.

The JDL, founded in 1968, is composed primarily of young Jewish militants who consider themselves as defenders of "Jewish Rights". Demonstrations attempting to dramatize the Jewish problem in Russia, and similar demonstrations against Arab establishments have often resulted in violence. Rabbi MEIR KAHANE, founder and National Director, has stated publicly on many occasions that violence is sometimes necessary to accomplish the aims of the JDL.

Two college SDS leaders were summarily suspended on March 14, 1972 for using a bullhorn in Shepard Hall, CCNY, while classes were in session. The students, [redacted] and other SDS members were protesting close arbitration hearings being held to settle a dispute stemming from a confrontation between the college teachers of JDL and three other groups of Young Socialists, the Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL) and SDS.

A leaflet announcing the SDS National Convention Against Racism included the following in regard to SDS:

"Columbia hasn't had an SDS chapter this school year. We think it should. We think people who go to the convention, and see what SDS is doing elsewhere, will agree to this. We think that many people who remember what SDS has done here at Columbia will agree, too.

"In 1968, SDS helped lead the fight against the racist gym and war research at Columbia.

"In 1969, SDS was effective in pushing ROTC off campus.

"In 1970, SDS joined with workers on campus to fight against administration racism and anti - worker practices, building a concrete worker - student alliance.

"We think that the student movement of past years was greatly responsible for winning millions of Americans to positions against the war, imperialism, racism, and changing their attitudes about the government. We think a national student movement is needed to fight back even harder against the wealthy parasites that run this country. When struggles occur, when working people fight back, at Attica or New Orleans, a strong national student movement can greatly enhance the ability of students to respond. We think SDS has a place here at Columbia.

A leaflet was distributed at CU, NYC, on March 20, 1972, entitled "March 21 International Day To Combat Racism", issued by SDS, Committee to Free Mozambique and the Southern African Committee.

The leaflet called for a demonstration at the University Sundial, 1:00 PM, on March 21, 1972, to commemorate the anniversary of the Sharpesville Massacre of 1960, when 69 Black Africans were killed by the police during a demonstration protesting Apartheid policies of the South African Government.

The group was demanding that the University sell its shares in corporations operating in South Africa, so that the money would be used to rehire the 30 maids laid off by CU and provide services for the community.

The SMC publicly describes itself as the largest organization of American antiwar youth. It organizes mass actions to fight for the total, immediate, and unconditional withdrawal of all United States troops and material from Southeast Asia. SMC is controlled by the SWP, which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The NPAC was founded in 1970 by members of the SWP. Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GIs, and the black community in the struggle to end United States intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactics.

A meeting to "Plan Action Against Escalation" was moved to Mc Intosh Hall, Barnard College, and held on April 18, 1972, 7:30 to 10:45 PM, with over 1100 students from CU in attendance. The assembled group voted for an immediate strike in protest to renewed United States bombing of North Vietnam, with the strike of the university lasting until Sunday, April 23, 1972, and a moratorium of classes on April 21, 1972.

The group also called for an end of university contracts with the United States State Department and Defense Department; an economic boycott of South African industries; and end to Jason Project at Pupin Physics Lab, dealing with Military Technology.

Various groups were represented at the meeting including SDS. SDS managed to seize upon the demands of every other group at the meeting, developing them around the SDS current theme of Anti Racism.

On April 21, 1972, 4:15 PM, SAS - FBI observed approximately 400 demonstrators marching south on Seventh Avenue and Times Square, NYC, in an Antiwar protest against the bombing of North Vietnam. The march began earlier at CU. The Columbia SDS, PLP, and YAWF (Youth Against War and Facism) were represented by banners in the march.

The group continued past Times Square and marched south on Seventh Avenue to the Veteran's Administration Building, 252 Seventh Avenue, NYC where a group of 16

Vietnam Veterans Against the War members were engaged in a sit-in on the 16th floor of the building. At 5:40 PM, the demonstrators dispersed with about ten present remaining behind to show support for the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW). No arrests occurred during the march.

SAS - FBI

YAWF is the youth group of the Workers World Party (WWP).

The WWP was founded in 1959 by individuals who disagreed with policies of the SWP. The WWP dissidents advocated unconditional support of the Soviet Union and the building of a revolutionary party geared to the overthrow of capitalism. More recently the WWP has called for peaceful solutions to Sino-Soviet disputes, however, the WWP generally supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological differences with the Soviet Union.

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a National Clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, NYC. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

April 23, 1972

On April 23, 1972, a meeting was held in Mc Millan Theater at CU, NYC, sponsored by the CU Strike Committee, with approximately 1,000 persons present. 1 REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised the the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space [redacted] b7D

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue. - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 10, 1972, that a demonstration was being planned to protest an award being given to Dr. Saul Krugman, Chairman of the Department of Pediatrics, New York University School of Medicine, by the ACP at their annual convention in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on April 17, 1972. Source stated that the demonstration is being co-sponsored by SDS and MCHR. Source said that [redacted] on April 17, 1972.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s, functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which results in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Allicance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are not longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

Weatherman, formerly a faction of SDS, controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

Attached hereto is an appendix of the RYM.

The PLP was founded in 1962, by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

The convocation program booklet of the ACP reveals that Dr. Saul Krugman would receive the James D. Bruce Memorial Award for Distinguishing Contributions in Preventive Medicine at the opening session of the ACP's annual convention in the Ballroom of Convention Hall, Atlantic City, New Jersey, at 11:00 AM, on April 17, 1972.

During the course of the ACP's convention on April 17, 1972, Special Agents (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed approximately 115 youthful demonstrators rise to their feet for a period of about ten minutes and attempt to disrupt the presentation of the Memorial Award to Dr. Krugman. Demonstrators, who were seated in one section off to the side of the stage, chanted alternately "let him speak" and "racist Krugman must go" while displaying placards condemning Dr. Krugman for his viral hepatitis experiments on retarded children at Willowbrook State School for the Mentally Retarded. Two female demonstrators made an attempt to jump up onto the stage, but were immediately escorted from the Ballroom by uniformed police officers. They stated that they only intended to take a close-up photograph of Dr. Krugman.

Some of the placards being waved by demonstrators read as follows:

"Ban Human Experimentation. Condemn Krugman."
"Would You Let Your Child Get Injected with Hepatitis?"
"More Funds for Willowbrook - Not for Krugman's Facist Experiments"
"Infect Krugman - Not Kids"
"Retarded Kids are Human Beings. Krugman is a Racist Dog"

Following the conclusion of the convocation program, which was conducted over the din of the demonstrators' chanting, the demonstrators paraded out of the Ballroom in an orderly fashion behind other spectators to hold a forum discussion on Dr. Krugman in Room 101 of Convention Hall.

The demonstrators passed out SDS leaflets captioned, "Confront the Racist Beast of Willowbrook," in which the Boston Regional SDS demanded the following:

1. "Krugman be fired - not honored"
2. "The Willowbrook experiments be stopped immediately."
3. "Conditions at Willowbrook be improved and full staffing provided" and "Why won't Krugman answer our questions?"

The demonstrators also passed out a leaflet captioned "Censure Dr. Krugman," which is a statment by the New York Chapter of the MCHR, demanding the following:

1. "The conditions at Willowbrook be stopped immediately."
2. "Medical journals refuse to print Dr. Krugman's experiments and all other unethical literature."
3. "Dr. Krugman not only be refused this award, but he should be censured for his inhumane experimentation."

4. "Subjects for experimentation must be fully informed of the risks involved and able to consent to that research with no coercion."

From 4:00 to 5:00 PM, the demonstrators sat in on a panel discussion, "Australian Antigen, What's New?" held in Room 101 of Convention Hall, of which Dr. Krugman was a panelist. The demonstrators sat in a group in front of the panelists and displayed their placards whenever Dr. Krugman would speak, but otherwise, did not disrupt the panel discussion.
